Tekst of the week

Galatians 5: 22-23

People who are guided by the Holy Spirit live differently. They love each other. They are happy and live in peace. They are patient and treat each other well. They believe in Christ. They are friendly and well-behaved. If you live like this you do exactly what God actually wants.

This week's theme is the fruit of the Spirit. If you let the Holy Spirit guide you, what kind of things do you do? Circle the words in the text of the week.

You recognize a tree by its fruits. How do people recognize you? Is there a fruit of the Spirit that grows well inside of you?

Challenge of the week:

Put some fruit candies on a plate and place an empty beaker next to it. Suck up the candies with a straw. How many fruit candies can you put in the beaker in 30 seconds?

What is your favorite fruit? _____
